

What We Know about Heaven

Much of what we know about heaven is found in Revelation's description of the New Jerusalem. This city will be the eternal dwelling place of God and his people, who will enjoy the everlasting blessings of a new heaven and new earth.

Heaven is being prepared by Christ himself.	John 14:3
Heaven is only for those who have been born again.	John 3:3
Heaven is described as a glorious city.	Revelation 21:11, 18
Heaven will shine with and be lighted by God's glory.	Revelation 21:11, 23 ; 22:5
Heaven's gates will never be shut.	Revelation 21:25
Heaven has the river of the Water of Life to insure everlasting life.	Revelation 22:1
Heaven has the Tree of Life to insure abundant life.	Revelation 2:7 ; 22:19
Heaven has the throne of God at its center.	Revelation 4:2 ; 22:1-2
Heaven is a place of holiness.	Revelation 21:27
Heaven is beautiful.	Psalm 50:2
Heaven is a place of unity.	Ephesians 1:10
Heaven is a place of perfection.	1 Corinthians 13:10
Heaven is joyful.	Psalm 16:11
Heaven is a place for all eternity.	John 3:15 ; Psalm 23:6
Heaven has no night.	Revelation 21:25 ; 22:5
Heaven has singing.	Isaiah 44:23 ; Revelation 14:3 ; 15:1-3
Heaven has serving.	Revelation 7:15 ; 22:3

What We Know about Our Bodies in Heaven

They will be recognizable.	1 Corinthians 13:12
They will be like Christ's body.	1 John 3:2
They will be bodies in which the spirit predominates.	1 Corinthians 15:44, 49
They will be unlimited by space.	Luke 24:31 ; John 20:19, 26
They will be eternal.	2 Corinthians 5:1-5
They will be glorious.	Romans 8:18 ; 1 Corinthians 15:43
They will not have pain.	Revelation 21:4
They will not die.	1 Corinthians 15:26 ; Revelation 21:4
They will not hunger or thirst.	Revelation 7:16
They will not sin.	Revelation 21:27